FD Responds to Roof Collapse at Country Mart

At 3:42 a.m. Tuesday, September 2, 2014, the Coffeyville Fire Department responded to Country Mart at 1000 Hall Street for a report of a roof collapse and a trapped person inside. Upon arrival, the individual, who was a contract janitor, was located at the front of the store. Fire Captain Wayne Joplin reported fire personnel forced the front door open to gain access to the building. The northeast corner of the roof collapsed causing extensive damage to the structure and water damage throughout the store. There were no injuries reported.
