FD Responds to Structure Fire at 702 Hibbard

At 6:38 a.m. on Tuesday, September 2, 2014, the Coffeyville Fire Department responded to 702 Hibbard, Apartment J, for a reported structure fire. Upon arrival, light smoke was seen coming from an upstairs apartment which originated from a smoldering couch in the back bedroom. The couch was quickly extinguished. There were no occupants in the apartment at the time fire personnel arrived and no injuries were reported. According to Fire Captain Wayne Joplin damage to the structure and contents is estimated to be between $5,000 and $10,000. The cause of the fire is under investigation by the Fire and Police Departments.
